Obituary

Della Crute was born on October 5, 1946. She departed this life on February 29, 2016.

Della also known as “Dee/Sweet Dee” by friends and “Bit/Lil Bit” by family had always been a high spirited person that believed you get what you give. She was loving and outgoing and will be missed and loved by loved ones she leaves behind.

Della leaves behind: three children, Lucretia Crute-Woodfork, James Crute, Jr. and Karen Merritt. She also leaves behind: two sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law, eight grandchildren, five great grandchildren, five remaining siblings out of eight and close friends.

Della will always be missed and loved. So whenever you see the sunrise just know that’s her saying hello!

Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he died, yet shall he live.”

Phillipians 4:6-7

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
