Obituary

Edward “Eddie” Gunn was born to the late William and Carrie Gunn on January 13, 1935 in Crawfordsville, Georgia, where he attended his high school years. After finishing high school, he enlisted in the Armed Forces branch of the Army.

After being honorably discharged in 1963, he went on to work for Newark Housing Authority from which he retired after thirty years of service. While working at Newark Housing in 1969, he met the love of his life, Wilma Ward-Gunn and later married in 1972.

Eddie loved being around his family, he would always lend a helping hand to friends and neighbors whether working on cars, plumbing and electric, building decks; he was a jack of all trades. During his down time, Eddie loved to play the guitar and watching westerns and military movies.

Eddie was preceded in death by his wife, Wilma Ward-Gunn, son, Gerald Morgan, sister, Mary Spencer, and brother, Sammy Gunn.

Eddie leaves to cherish his memories: his children, daughter, Sharon Akins and sons, Larry Edward Howell, Jeffrey Morgan, Darryl Morgan, and Kevin Morgan; sister-in-law, Thelma Gunn and Aunt Ollie Edwards; as well as a host of grandchildren, great nieces, and nephews.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
