Obituary

On February 12, 1930, Hugh Bailey was born in the Island of Tobago to Eliza Joseph Bailey and David Bailey where he spent his formative years before moving to Trinidad, WI. There he had his first son Glenford. Thereafter, while employed as a postman, he met and married Joan St Louis. To this union were born Diana, Ancilla, Grantley, Jacqueline, Milton and Tudor. While in Trinidad, he was an avid well known cyclist competing and winning in local competition. Hugh joined the police force and remained a policeman until he moved to the United States.

In 1968, he moved his entire family to Orange, NJ. While he worked with the New Jersey transit, as a bus driver. After 10 years with his family in Orange the union between Hugh and Joan dissolved.

Hugh later worked at Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation in West Orange as a rehab specialist when he met and married Halema Ali. For over 20 years, he spent his time with Halema, stepdaughter Alice and step granddaughter Areil, and later retired from Kessler.

He was a man who enjoyed learning and enjoyed various hobbies; One of which was kite flying; on a beautiful day he enjoyed taking his kites to Liberty States Park spending many hours flying his kites as he attracted many onlookers. And the other was meeting his group of male “work out buddies” at the gym 3-4 days a week for their weekly work out routine.

He enjoyed life and lived his life to its fullest and he will be remembered for his hearty laugh and comically jokes. He leaves to cherish his memory seven children, stepdaughter, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephew, and friends.

“HE IS SMILING IN THE SKY”

Do not weep; do not cry for he is smiling in the sky.
He is not gone he's not far away you'll feel his presence every moment every day.

Why should you weep and why should you moan for he has found his place in God's heavenly home.

God will remove all pain and he will unite you'll see your loved one again.

Do not cry, do not weep for he is not dead he is just asleep.
You'll miss that perfect rose a wonderful father, stepfather, grandfather and friend God chose

So, Do not weep; do not cry for he is smiling in the sky.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
