Obituary

On Wednesday, March 2, 2016, God called his son, Lloyd E. Macklin to rest. He was born in New York City to the late Ernest and Hattie Macklin.

Lloyd received his education from New York City Public Schools and attended Westchester Community College. Many will remember that he was very affectionate and truly loved his mother. He was also quite the practical joker and loved music and reading. Most people will remember Lloyd for his skills on the basketball court and how he loved to teach kids how to play basketball.

Preceding Lloyd in death were his parents, Ernest and Hattie Macklin and his brother, Henry Macklin. Lloyd leaves to cherish his loving memory: sisters, Rhonda Macklin and Celestine (Ralph) Woods; brothers, Mckinley (Joyce) Macklin, Robert (Deborah) Macklin and Ross Macklin; niece, Shinese (Randall) Macklin Collins; great niece, Mariah; and a host of aunts, cousins, family and dear friends.

No more sorrow. No more pain. We will miss you. Rest in peace. We will always love you.

Family Word

In tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
Because we wanted you to stay
But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain
How could we wish you back with us
To suffer that way again
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

“So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.” Isaiah 41:10
