Remembering Her Life

Arlene Davis was born on March 5, 1937 in Manhattan, New York. She was born to the late Ella and Robert Brown. She was a wonderful loving person and had a good sense of humor. Whenever someone needed her help, she would always help if she could.

Arlene graduated from Jane Adams High School and started working as a childcare provider, as well as a home health aide.

Arlene leaves behind: four children, Tyrone, Tawanna, Latanya and Tina; one adopted daughter, which is her granddaughter, Laquasha Davis. She had thirteen grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren. Arlene leaves behind: two sisters, Victoria and Loretta; one brother, Bernard; as well as nieces and nephews.

Arlene was one of the best mothers a child could have, and also a wife, sister, aunt, grandmother and great grandmother to all of us. Arlene was a very outgoing person and loved to travel. She loved to listen to all types of music.

Arlene thank you for the gift of love, now you are sharing it up above. We say goodbye as tears roll down our eyes. I know your place in heaven has a good view, you're telling God, I need to keep my eyes on a few.

On behalf of her daughters and son, she was very special and dear to us, and we just wish that we could have had much much more time with her. We will always love her, and she will always be in our thoughts and will never be forgotten.

In God's name, we pray.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
