Obituary

A time to be born... On February 17, 1948, Ramon Lucien Vialet (Ray) was born to Lionel Vialet and Estrille Vialet-Howard in St Thomas, Virgin Island. The family moved to New York in 1955 when Ray was seven. Ray was one of seven children. His three brothers and two sisters Roy, Lionel Jr, Ralph, Ruth, and Rafaela preceded him in death. Reil which is the only survived sibling. Ramon met his wife Sheila Stevenson in 1996 in Morristown, New Jersey where they married in 2000. They had one son together Marcus Vialet. Where they resided in Orange, New Jersey. Ramon had six children. Omar Lee, Sabrina Lee, Nikole Vialet, Lamont Vialet and Andre Vialet.

A time to learn... After High School Ray attended Job Corp in 1967. He realized that cooking was his passion so he went to Culinary School at the Waldorf Astoria, Queens, New York in 1968.

A time to prosper... Ramon became a great chef. He mastered his craft and worked at many different restaurants, hotels and kitchens. He worked in the Kitchen at the Best Western hotel in Morristown for many years until he became ill and was forced to retire in 2006.

A time to remember... Ray was loved by his family and friends. He had a great work ethic. Ramon was a hard working man. He did whatever it took to provide for his family. He was a great father to his children and a great husband to his wife. He was a very outspoken man. He said what he felt. He didn't care if it would make you smile or make you cry. The legacy of his season is left to his amazing wife, children, grandchildren, brother, cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and many friends.

Someone So Dearly Loved

Someone so dearly loved
So popular with his friends
We should not cry forever,
For this is not the end.

His memory lives amongst us,
Times we both laughed and cried,
I cannot bare to lose him,
But one day, we all must die

I hear his voice within me,
and his funny little laugh
So many things remind me;
Of times that are now gone past.

I knew of no-one who hated him,
He was the apple of every eye
Any conflicts, we all once had are now by the by.

Jacqueline Ryan

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
