Obituary

Vivian Brown was born in Charleston, South Carolina to Elisabeth (Bell) Brown and Marion (Sonny Boy) Waley. She is the second oldest of five children. Although Vivian has faced many adversities in her past she has risen out of the old ashes like a pheonix into a whole new life.

Vivian enjoyed cooking and made a career of it, specializing in soul food. She always said her secret ingredient was Love. She enjoyed fashion, looking fabulous and dancing. She loved life and her new chance at it.

Vivian left behind strength, wisdom and courage to her friends and family and that's one thing no one can forget about. Her loving personality and her great heart used to care for anyone no matter what the circumstances were.

She was a mother figure to many and was loved by all. Vivian is now joining her little sister, Evonne who preceded her in death.

Vivian is survived by: her eight children, Tywona, Shawna, Shalamar, Reginald, Chanel, Precious, Samirah and Maurice; her nineteen grandchildren, Danielle, Julius, Irene, Javonne, Trezure, Tayshawn, Breonshae, Zymere, Reginald, Jr., Saniya, Seraji, Chris, Jr., Aiden, Adrian, Alianna, Maurice, Jr., Nierra, Nyla and Nevaeh; and five great grands, Justin, Zamari, Jada, Jaden and Mya. She is also survived by her mother, Elisabeth Brown; her brothers, Anthony Brown, Jerry Brown and Gary Brown; along with a host of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Vivian's passing was hard especially since it was so unexpected, but one thing for sure she is now a legend and her name will always be spoken about in a positive light. She was a very dedicated person to her work, family and friends and we will always remember and cherish her for that.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
