Obituary

Nina Latisha Nolly was born on October 11, 1975 in Harlem Hospital to Aaron Luther Nolly and the late Shirley Gean Nolly. She was one of two children.

Nina attended Grace Dodge Vocational High School, where she graduated in June 1994 with her license in cosmetology.

Nina enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She worked in a cosmetology salon doing hair, nails and makeup.

Nina loved life, was always smiling and happy even on her darkest days.

On March 1, 2001, Nina gave birth to a healthy baby boy, Solomon Coke. She was a good mother to her child. Nina came from a spiritual family background. As a child in her teenage years, she joined Mt. Hermon Baptist Church and sung in the choir.

On Sunday, March 13, 2016 the Lord called Nina Latisha Nolly home to be with Him throughout eternity.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her loving son, Solomon Coke; her father, Aaron Luther Nolly, Sr.; her brother, Aaron Luther Nolly, Jr.; three aunts, Orlee Lloyd of Greensboro, NC, Mary and Margaret of New York; two uncles, Reverend James Lee Hunter of Graham, NC and Ernerst Strayhorn, Jr. of New York; and a host of cousins, other family and friends.

Nina will truly be missed by her family and her loved ones, gone but never forgotten.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life. This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."
