Obituary

On August 30, 1940, in Rockingham, North Carolina, Inez and Pastel Cameron gave birth to a baby boy who would become an honorable, hard working, kind hearted and loving family man, Johnny Cameron.

Johnny attended Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina. He later relocated to Bronx, New York where he reunited with his childhood friend, Kathy Bidgood, who would become his future wife and lifetime soulmate.

Johnny enjoyed a passionate career as a Social Worker at NYC Human Resources Administration.

Johnny always kept a positive, upbeat attitude towards life, no matter what. He enjoyed various genres of music, was an avid Yankees fan and had an affinity for cowboy, western movies. Up at 6am, seven days a week, Johnny enjoyed being out and about, regardless of the weather. Armed with an impeccable fighting spirit, Johnny embraced any and all situations with a humbled heart and sheer determination to let nothing steal his joy. His gentle smile and peaceful aura was contagious to anyone he encountered.

On March 13, 2016, Johnny Cameron departed his earthly existence to take residence in God's kingdom. His fond memory survives through his immediate family: wife, Kathy; son and daughter, Sean and Desiree; co-workers; neighbors; friends; and various associates who are all familiar with his friendly nature and charismatic personality.

We Will Always Love you!

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
