Obituary

Samuel Littlejohn, Jr. was born January 21, 1956 in Newark, NJ, to the late Samuel and Alberta Littlejohn. Sam went to his heavenly home on March 13, 2016 at 1:20 am.

Sam graduated from Dayton St. Elementary School, East Side High School in the City of Newark and attended Kean University. His career started in Newark City Hall for the Department of Finance Division of Employee's Retirement System for forty straight years.

Sam served under four Mayors of City Hall of Newark and worked with his manager Bessie Staggers for thirty-three years (2nd Mom at work). Sam was very well respected and loved by his co-workers, especially by his side kicks, Kevin Waters and Ernest Turner. He also worked closely with Newark Fire and Police Departments as well as the Neighborhood Watch.

Sam enjoyed sports, especially bowling, baseball and his favorite teams; NY Knicks and St. Louis Rams. He also enjoyed studying Black American History and learning the latest computer technologies.

Sam is survived by his brother, Albert (Yvette) Littlejohn, his sister, Christina (Jewell) Isalm; his nephew, Larren Littlejohn; his only uncle, Joe Culbreth and other nephews, nieces and his friend, Sheila and family. Special thank you to our Hanford Street Family, Aunt Joanne and Pattie, Ray, Owens Family, Atkinson Family, Moore Family and many others on Hanford Street.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
