Reflections of Life

On November 8, 1980 Victor B. Hearn, Sr. affectionately known as “Big Vic”, was born to Tracey Hearn and the late Irving Johnson in the city of Newark, NJ. At an early age, Victor moved to Baltimore, MD. Where he attended Langston Hughes Elementary School and Southwestern High. He was employed as a Security Officer for various agencies before moving back to his hometown Newark, NJ.

Victor found enjoyment being around his family, entertaining friends and listening to music, especially rap in which he was also phenomenally gifted. Although he had many friends, Victor and his best friend, “Lou” were inseparable.

Victor’s favorite pastime was devoting time to his children and living his life day by day like it was his last.

After a brief illness, on March 14th Victor made his transition from labor to reward to be with the Lord.

Victor leaves to cherish his memory: his wonderful mother, Tracey Hearn; four beautiful children, Victor Jr.; his daughter, Victoria and twin sons, Isaiah and Elijah; four siblings, Brenda, Ishmael, Paris and Marcelle. Victor also leaves to cherish his precious memory his grandparents, Chian Hearn, Brenda Evans, Thomas Pyatt and Mrs. Bernell Holland; lovely nieces, Breia and Heaven, his two nephews, Brejon and Danzell; Victor’s aunts, Michelle, Vichan, Marcia, Bridget, Nichole and Linda; his uncles, Anwar, Jihad, Kareem Muhammad; Victor’s special friend, Kimberly Lynch; and his best friend, Louis Townes. Victor also leaves a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Brother

Today is full of memories
of a brother laid to rest,
and every single one of them is filled with happiness.

For you were someone special
always such a joy to know,
and there was so much pain when
it was time to let you go.

That's why this special message is sent to heaven above, for the angels to take care
of you and give you all our love.
