Reflections of Life

On the miraculous day of July 22, 1966, an angel was created by God, and was blessed to the late Hubert and Ivy Anderson; she was named Claudine Odette Anderson.

“Sadie” as she was called by family and friends was born in Pryce Pen, Kitson Town, Saint Catherine, Jamaica. Then later migrated to the United States, where she resided in New York, then later moved to New Jersey.

Professionally Sadie was employed at the Executive Health Care Service as a Personal Care Giver, alongside a variety of other agencies as a Nursing Assistant and Medication Aide.

Sadie enjoyed spending time with her family and will be remembered for dancing, singing, and telling jokes. Her favorite songs from reggae artists, such as Shabba Ranking, Buju Banton and Sanchez, she also enjoyed a variety of other genre, such as Gospel and R&B. Sadie will also be remembered as someone who is very humorous and full of life, she walks into a room and brings a ray of sunshine.

Because of her attitude, and vibrant energy, she will forever be in our hearts. Known for her ease in frequent conversation with even total strangers, some may be surprised to learn of her extreme shyness of her youth. Yet even as a child she possessed a contagious smile and an entertaining sense of humor. Throughout her life she maintained a sweet and simple demeanor that won the trust and hearts of many, who even now are being changed by her witness of constant nurturing love. Her signature gift of joy, shown through her constant smiling, laughter, and joking around, will never be forgotten. We love you!!

Sadie leaves to cherish her memory: her four children, Cameike (Meeka), Martin (Luther), Teagean (Tagg), and Alicia (Lisa); her five sisters, Veronica (Miss U), Pauline (Beenie Bud), Shirley, Pearl, and Lynette (Zebby); three brothers, BramLee (Lee-Bo), Steve (Antourage), and Lance (Bully); three grandchildren, Onielia, Demetri and Marquess. Including this there is a host of nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends whom she loved so dearly.

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
