Reflections of Life

Robert Eric Ramirez was accepted into heavens gate on Friday, March 25, 2016. Robert was forty-five years old. He was born in Newark, NJ on July 7, 1970. He was raised in Newark, NJ and attended Newark Public schools.

Known to friends as “Rahfi”, but to close loved ones as “Bobby.” We all have the same thoughts when we think of a life without this wonderful man. After a few health problems that was thought to be something so little, overcame him but in the end we still won. The pain may seem unbearable but we were left with more than we think. For the rest of our lives we will all look at each other and say “Hey Buddy,” with the biggest smiles on our face, end any sentence with “Goodnight,” or be calling someone out there and saying “Hey Hunnie”.

When we think of him we should only cherish the good and not dwell on the passing of his life. Rahfi was a kind man with a big heart that was willing to do any and everything for all who came his way. Sometimes he could be hard to deal with, due to the annual curse out many have probably endured. He put his heart into everything he did especially when he found himself a car he wanted to work on. But regardless of good or bad terms, Rahfi’s heart was too big to leave anyone hanging or in a tight situation. Through his years of living, he acquired a personality that couldn’t be ignored by any. He attracted a lot of people that just stuck to him and grew a love and loyalty to Rahfi because of the multiple aspects of his life he offered. He had a strong personality that was overbearing and there was nothing anyone could do but love him for that. Not only was he a loving man, he was hilarious as well and always ready to crack a joke on everyone that came his way, nobody was safe. But it was those things that made you love him even more because he was so optimistic.

Rahfi leaves behind memories and love to: mother, Sarah J. Ramirez; father, William Ramirez; brother, Anthony Ramirez; sisters, Priscilla Coleman, Raquel Coleman, Erica Blackwell, Christina Cruz, Erica Cruz and Nina Cruz. His kids whom he loved dearly, sons, Isaiah Edwin, Robert Eric Ramirez Jr., Justin Ramirez, Rahfi Ramirez, and his only daughter, Sarah J. Ramirez, and a huge group of loving aunties, uncles, and friends. We are born in life into a family, and then there are people we choose as family so a very special thank you to the following chosen family members; Terrance Dunham “Cuz,” Latoya Robinson “Hunnie,” Thomas McNeil “Trey,” Sabrina Elam “Sister,” Lamar Elam “Spank,” Ajon Rogers “Nephew,” Maurice Newkirk “Moe/Nephew/Brother,” Terrell Waller “Studda-Box,” Claudette Goode “Cee-Cee.”

From the bottom of my heart I Love You guys for loving my baby the way you did.”—Momma Fi

1. “Come, let us return to the Lord.

He has torn us to pieces

but He will heal us;

He has injured us

but he will bind up our wounds.

2. After two days He will revive us;

on the third day He will restore us,

that we may live in His presence.”
