Obituary

Daisy M. Marshall was born to Nathinal and Lucile Collins on October 30, 1930 in Jacksonville, Georgia. She moved to Daytona Beach, Florida at age 9 then to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at age 12. At age 14, she moved to Newark, New Jersey where she graduated from East Side High School then began her career and started her family.

Daisy married William C. Marshall Sr., a veteran who fought in World War II and loved her and their children dearly. Together they raised 3 amazing children; Minnie, William (Bill) Jr., and Leon (Les). Daisy worked for East Orange School District as a traffic guard then she worked for the city of Newark as a security officer until she retired.

Daisy was the matriarch of her family. She played an active role in raising her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. She leaves her children, 6 grandchildren; Shirell, Tonya, Jamal, Anthony, JJ and baby Landen, 8 great grandchildren; Shanna, Robert (Bud), Kennesha, Donyea, Rashon (poohman), Raquan (Stoogie), Nevaeh and Journey, 8 great great grandchildren; Alshon (Peanut), Alshanna, Alshamar, Aljanae, Josiah, Lil' Larry, Nasha, and Amarri. Daisy also leaves behind a host of friends and her church family. To be absent from this earth means she is reunited with her Heavenly Father and her husband, William, the only man she ever loved.

Message from Daisy:

“Remember me with smiles and laughter, that’s the way I will remember you all. If you can only remember me with tears, then don’t remember me at all.”

Love,
Daisy, your mother, your grammy, your friend

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
