Obituary

Annette Belgrave was born on October 11, 1937 in Boyle, Mississippi. She was the youngest of three children, all of which predeceased her. Annette passed away on March 25, 2016.

Annette met and married the late George Belgrave in New York City. She worked as a Developmental Aide for The State of New York, which she retired from.

Annette was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on August 5, 1972. She was a dedicated and faithful servant of Jehovah, and she loved speaking to others about her beliefs.

Annette will be remembered for her kindness and faithfulness. She also was an excellent cook and was known for her peach cobbler and sweet potato pies.

Annette had seven children, five of which predeceased her, Carl Williams, Stephanie Lewis, Jolene Stokes, Michelle Belgrave and Kirk Belgrave.

She is survived by: two children, Chyrisse Baptiste and Timothy Belgrave; nineteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren.

*"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear His voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." John 5:28, 29

*"A good name is better than good oil, and the day of death is better than the day of birth. Better to go to the house of mourning than to the house of feasting, for that is the end of every man, and the living should take it to heart." Ecclesiastes 7:1, 2

Song 55

Life Without End—At Last! (John 3:16)

1. Can you see with your mind's eye,
Peoples dwelling together?
Sorrow has passed. Peace at last!
Life without tears or pain.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
"Life without end, at last!"

2. In those days old will grow young,
Flesh revived as in childhood.
Troubles are gone, from now on,
No need to weep or fear.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
"Life without end, at last!"

3. Paradise all will enjoy
As we sing of God's glory.
Long as we live, we will give
To God, our Maker, thanks.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
"Life without end, at last!"
