Obituary

Inge Hardison was born February 3, 1914. She is survived by her daughter, Yolande Hardison; niece, Leemil Inge Hardison; grandson, Jon Christopher Hardison; great-grandchildren, Ava Christine Hardison, Daniel Zolotarevskiy, and Shane Lafayette Hardison; as well as numerous great nieces and nephews.

Inge passed away of Alzheimers disease peacefully at home on the evening of March 23, 2016 surrounded by family and friends at the age of 102.

Inge has been an actress, an artists model, a sculptor, photographer, poet, teacher, singer, mother, and sunbeam in the lives of all who she touched--for an hour or a lifetime.

Although she has won many honors and awards, she is due much more recognition as one of those unusual souls who seem to transform all that they encounter. She has truly left the world in better shape for her lifetime of dedication not only to black people, but people of all colors, religions and persuasions.

Her greatest legacy is her message of encouragement to live through your highest self; to fulfill your creative urges; to love yourself and those around you.

Beloved Lord~

Write me like a pencil
Sing me like a song
Love me like a lover
All day long

For Your purpose only
You, always guiding me
I never will be lonely
Just happy and free!

Singer, writer, sculptor
Make beauty now through me
According to Your endless love
For all humanity ---
...and me...

Inge Hardison
