Obituary

A Time To Be Born:

On September 5, 1924, James Wason and Millicent Lashley of Panama gave birth to a beautiful daughter, Edna. She was the third child of four children.

A Time To Plant:

At an early age, Edna decided she wanted to become a Nurse, so she with the aid of her parents moved to New York. Edna attended Wadleigh High School in Manhattan, and after graduating she attended Lincoln Mental Health, where she graduated as a Registered Professional Nurse. She worked at Francis Delafield Hospital, and retired in 1985.

A Time To Move On:

Edna joined the St. Martin Methodist Church and attended until her health begun to fail. Edna was a beloved resident of Concourse Village where she met many friends even though she was very quiet and personal. Edna was a devoted member of the LAMBDA Kappa Mu Sorority, Inc. since 1980. A member of the Lincoln School of Nursing, where the members support a school in Harlem and each year they buy Christmas gifts and present them to the school.

A Time For Family:

Edna loved her family dearly and was very devoted to them. She had such a fantastic memory, she knew the names of her nieces, nephews and their children's names, phone numbers and birthdays. She never failed to remember special days and she had to send cards and a check. She was so very proud of their achievements and talked about them. She was a remarkable, loving and kind person.

A Time To Depart:

Edna left this world March 29, 2016, at the Lincoln Hospital after many years of illness. She leaves to mourn: nephews, Omar Bailey and Abdul Bailey; nieces, Carol Baxter, Sandra Wason and Yvonne Wason-James; grandnieces, Kimberly Crooks, Avril James-Hurt and Kellyn Willey; grandnephews, Brian Baxter and Trevor Brown; sister-in-law, Clotilde Wason; and a host of other family and friends.

We, her family are deeply sadden by her passing. She was and will be our dear and precious Aunt, who always loved us unconditionally. She is our Guardian Angel.

Not farewell, but so long!

Serenity Prayer

GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;

That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen
