

In Loving Memory of Kenneth James Brown

Sunrise
July 10, 1955

Sunset
March 24, 2016

Wednesday, April 6, 2016

Reflections of Life

Kenneth Brown was born in Umatilla, Florida on July 10, 1955 to the late Margaret Simpson and Edward Brown. Shortly after Kenneth's birth his parents relocated back to Newark, NJ.

Kenneth was educated in the Newark Public School system. After graduating, he attended the Man Power Training Center where he mastered the auto mechanic trade. While attending Man Power he became the neighborhood mini bike mechanic. Kenneth was also known to be the household prankster and even though everyone knew he loved them, he was not so much of the affectionate type. He showed it more in the funny type of way with his ongoing jokes, surprises, and pranks.

Kenneth has lived a full life. At the young age of twenty, he took off for Hawaii with his older brother Keith. When Keith returned to NJ, Kenneth made Honolulu, HI his home until 1983. He then headed to Florida to care for his father until his death and resided there for the next thirty-three years. He recently moved to NJ to be closer to family and transitioned there in the care of love ones.

Kenneth leaves to mourn and cherish his fond memories, his son; Camron Brown, his remaining siblings; Janice Simpson, Sharon Simpson, Ameenah White, David Brown, Tracey Lloyd, Michael Brown and 2 other sisters from his father. In addition, a host of nieces, nephews, great and great-great nieces and nephews, along with other family and friends. Kenneth was preceded in death by his parents Edward Brown and mother Margaret Simpson. More recently, his sister Kathi Brown, brother Ronald Keith Simpson, and missing brother Barry Brown.

Kenneth was truly loved and will surely be missed by all who knew him.

We Love You Kenneth!!!

Professional Services Provided By

COTTON FUNERAL SERVICE

130 Main Street
Orange, NJ
973-675-6400

1025 Bergen Street
Newark, NJ
973-926-6400

COTTON-PARKER FUNERAL HOME

37 Clinton Avenue
Jersey City, NJ
201-433-1000

www.honoryou.com