Obituary

Gail Annette Cobb went home to be with the Lord on December 20, 2015.

Gail was born on May 19, 1941 in Orange, New Jersey. Her parents were the late Henton B. Cobb, Sr. and the late Marilyn A. Cobb. Gail was born and raised in Orange, New Jersey where she attended school. Gail moved to the city of East Orange in 1969, where she resided with her beloved mother, Marilyn.

Gail was employed by the city of East Orange as a school traffic guard from 1976, until her retirement in 2005. She was also a Matron for the East Orange Police Department.

Gail was a beloved member of Twenty Four Seven Community Church in Newark, New Jersey, where she attended faithfully and where she served and loved on her church family. Her church family loved and embraced her as an outstanding and faithful servant of our Lord Jesus Christ.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Henton B. Cobb, Jr., Gilbert R. Cobb and Wallace M. Cobb.

Gail leaves to mourn her passing: her sisters, Janice M. Cobb and Yvonne Rappaport. She also leaves her beloved niece, Alicia Steckler who she cared for and loved dearly as though she was her own child. She also leaves to mourn her passing her other nieces and nephews, Charles M. Gaskins, Gerald Cobb, Monique Frazier, John C. Rappaport, Victoria A. Cameron, Fatima Dennis, Malika Cobb and Mark Cobb; and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.

Rest in Peace Gail, We Love you!

To Say Goodbye

*To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.*
