Obituary

George Nathaniel was born on May 19, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Elise Ruth Jackson and the late George Nathaniel, Sr.

He attended public schools in New York City, culminating in his graduation from Eastern District High School. He went on to spend two years at the American Banking Institute, leading to a career in finance. He worked at several New York City banks including Norstar Bank and Citibank. He also spent several years working for Starbucks Coffee Company. His final career was in public service as a member of the New York City Human Resources Administration.

George's love of music led to the drums, an instrument he played and taught at the Drum & Bugle Corp in Brooklyn. He enjoyed a wide variety of music styles including Fleetwood Mac, Hootie & The Blowfish and his all time favorite artist, Michael Jackson. His other major hobby was sports, especially football and baseball. His favorite teams were the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Yankees.

He was called home to be with the Lord on April 2, 2016. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Serena Nathaniel; his son, Devin Nathaniel; his siblings, Audrey, Carolyn and Wilson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and colleagues. He will be greatly missed by everyone.

Don't

*Don't spend too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad;
I left to be with Jesus
And this should make you glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving,
No need to feel distress;
I'm tired of life's frustrations
And had to get some rest.
Don't puzzle yourself with questions
Or try to reason why
Life here for me was ended,
It came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you
Feed it with your care;
Grow it with devotion
And spread it everywhere.
Don't fret because my leaving
Came in such a way;
We'll have another meeting
In God's eternal day.*
