Obituary

Louise Florence Brown was born on February 6, 1929 to Alma Wilson and Clifford Brown in New York, New York. Louise had six brothers, Leonard Brown, Eddie Brown, Clifford Brown, Curtis Brown, Jessie Brown and Willard Brown.

She received her formal education in New York and graduated from the College of New Rochelle. She worked as a Social Service Director for fifty years at Resurrection Youth Services on the planning board. She was also a faithful member of the Riverside Church. And she taught her children, Charles Williams and Donald Jenkins (deceased) to be hard workers, not needing to rely on anyone but the Lord.

Louise was known for being an activist in the community, she was always helping others through her words and deeds. She encouraged everyone around her to have a positive attitude, and she set a superb example of that as a strong survivor of breast cancer. You would have never known she had cancer, she continued to do everything everyday like it was nothing. Louise was an enthusiastic and vibrant woman who enjoyed dancing, cooking and her grandchildren.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Charles "Chez" Williams; her grandchildren, Savanah Williams and Chez Williams, Chaya Jenkins, Mya Jenkins, Donald Jenkins, (cousin, Rose Jenkins); her close cousins, Marty Doorman, Renee Jones and Quanda L. Jones; and a host of other dear family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
