Obituary

Aliyah Lynette Williams was born on January 31, 1991 to Laronda Williams and DeWayne Daniels she was called home on March 29, 2016.

Aliyah was a loving mother to Anylah Williams and Ian Baldwin. She graduated from Central High School with honors and worked as a security guard.

She joined the Eastern Star Queen of Sheba. Aliyah later turned her life to God and joined Grace Temple Church.

Aliyah leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Laronda Williams of Newark, NJ; father, DeWayne Daniels of Newark, NJ; daughter, Anyla Williams of Newark, NJ; son, Ian Baldwin of Newark, NJ; sisters, Monique Scott of Newark, NJ, Lameisha Williams of Newark, NJ; brothers, Fuquan Scott of Newark, NJ and Rasheed Williams of Newark, NJ; grandmothers, Frankie Scott of Newark, NJ, Helen Staton of Newark, NJ; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Five Minutes

*If we only had five minutes the day you passed away,
We would've had time to tell you all the things we needed to say.*

*We never got to tell you how much you mean to us,
Or that you were the best MOM, to Nylah & Ian*

The last time that we talked to you

We wish we would've known.

*We would have said I love you,
and kept you on the phone.*

*If we only had five minutes,
the morning you passed away,*

We'd give you one last hug so tight just to see your great big smile.

We'd tell you that we couldn't live without you, not even for awhile.

We'd kiss your cheek and take your hand and say you it's okay to go

And tell you that we'll miss you, more than you'll ever know.

But you were gone so quickly, one last car ride you'd take.

Before you even knew it, you were standing at heavens gate.

Now GOD has called upon you, it's time to get your wings.

To leave this life behind you, and enjoy all of heavens beautiful things.

So wait for us in Heaven, Aliyah Williams

Don't let us come alone.

*The day the angels come for us,
Please be there to bring us home.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
