Obituary

Charles Kenneth Smith was born on January 31, 1942, in Hallsboro, North Carolina to James E. Smith and Sarah Smith. He received his early education in Hallsboro and finished his education in Georgia, where he met his lovely wife, Vollie V. Robinson. In the early 1960's, Charles and Vollie moved to New Jersey in search of work. Charles became the owner and operator of an office furniture installation, moving and storage business. His successful business venture operated for over twenty years. Being a generous man, Charles often hired anyone looking for work. In his later years, Charles became a tractor trailer driver.

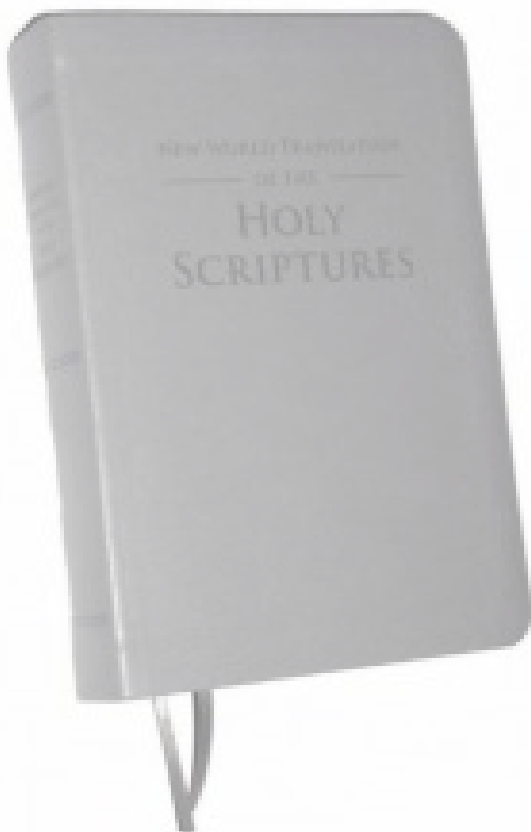

Charles was a dedicated husband, father and servant of Jehovah. He enjoyed sports, especially baseball and fishing. He loved listening to talk radio and spending time with his family. He was always on the move helping others spiritually, emotionally and financially.

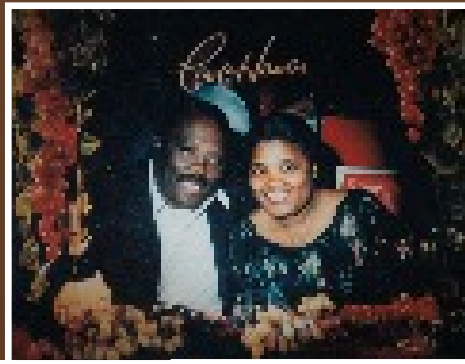

Charles and his wife, Vollie whom he affectionately called, "Teny" had six children, one daughter, Kecia and five sons, Anthony, Charles II, Alonzo (Kelly), Kelvin and Craig (Tia). He also has twenty-two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He has one surviving brother, Willie D.; four surviving sisters, Ethel (Eddie), Earnestine (Ernest), Glenda (Sammy Lee) and Virginia (Horace); and one surviving aunt, Maude Fuller Smith.

Charles sincerely loved his large spiritual family.
