Obituary

Gloria Lee Lowndes née Knox, was born January 5th, 1942 to parents, Rosa Lee Ingram and Edward Knox. Gloria graduated from Community High School and furthered her education by becoming a Certified Dental Assistant. Gloria later began a career working in the insurance industry as an Insurance Adjuster, where she remained for over twenty-five years.

The early years of Gloria's life were spent raising her children, enjoying family gatherings and loving life. One of Gloria's greatest passion was bowling. She became an excellent bowler, winning financial rewards and grand cash prizes including trips throughout the United States.

Gloria was preceded in death by her husband, Herman Lowndes. Resting with her memory, she leaves her daughter, Karen (Gordon), her older son, Bernard (Sylvia), and younger son, Keith (Felicia).

Gloria had fifteen grandchildren: Tanya (Jamaal), Bernard, Shanelle, Cecelie, Ebony, Ericka, Andrew, Gordon, Melanie, Pleshette, Kaylise, Chacyn, Kaleb, Seipio and Christopher and ten great-grandchildren: Ayana, Kamal, Amora, Aiden, Melony, Brook'Lynn, Zaianie, Savanna, Ryan and Riley.

She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, cousins and many friends.

Gloria lived her life to the fullest without regret. Gloria loved a good movie and a great laugh, but her no-nonsense approach to life will never be forgotten.

She will always be remembered as “Ms. Gloria.”

Interment

Mount Holiness Memorial Park
Butler, New Jersey

Little did we know that Sunday morning
God was going to call you home.
In our life we loved you dearly
and in your death we will do the same.
It really broke our hearts to lose you so soon,
but you did not go alone.

We want you to know that part of us went with you.

Yes, that Sunday God called you home:
You left us with wonderful memories.

The love you showed us will guide us for the rest of our life.

Although we cannot see you in the flesh,
we know you will always be by our sides.

Our family chain is missing a link and nothing will be the same.

Furthermore, as God calls us one after another,

our family chain will link again.

MOTHER, Ms. Gloria we will always love and miss you forever.
