Obituary

Charles Victor Williams went on to be with the Lord on April 12, 2016.

He was born March 24, 1951, in Newark, New Jersey to Doris Williams and Charles Williams Senior. He attended school here in Newark, and graduated from Barringer High School.

Charles spent part of his life in East Orange, Vauxhall, and Hillside, New Jersey, including time he spent in the south.

Charles was a well-known bus driver for forty years. He drove for public transportation and drove school buses as well.

Charles was married to Carol Jean Williams for 44 ½ years, and had a life long partner, Gloria Thomas, until she went on to be with the Lord.

He is survived by two sons, Kevin and Jaysen Williams, one daughter, Subrena Williams, two brothers, Robert Thomas and Wayne Williams, and one sister, Cynthia Jackson. He also leaves behind five step children, eleven grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Charles will be greatly missed by all. Better known in life as “Junie Boy,” Charles was a jack of all trades, and is now joined with his mother, father, sister, and life long partner on the other side of glory.

Today we honor the life of a man who lived, loved, and laughed until the very end. Charles knew how to have a good time, and he loved to throw down on the grill. Charles lived a good life, a happy life, and a fulfilling life surrounded by those whom he loved. We understand that there is a time to be born and there is a time to die. In honor of Charles, we hope to live the time between the dash of our sunset and sunrise, with vigor, purpose, and fulfillment. Always remembering the times we spent with Charles, we celebrate his life and never forget how he impacted our lives.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
