Reflections of Life

James Lee Daniels “Jody” was born on April 10, 1949 in Lake City, South Carolina. He was the youngest of four children born to the late Hezekiah Daniels and Millie Olivia Fulmore Daniels.

James received his early school years in Lake City, South Carolina until his family moved to Englewood, New Jersey in 1963. There he attended Dwight Morrow High School.

James met Karen Lipsey and married on September 27, 1969. Through this union, two beautiful daughters, Florence and Stacy, were born.

James worked as a driver for various trucking companies for several years until his illness. He was a huge NY Giants fan and anyone who knew him knows he LOVED to sing and dance and enjoyed music very much. He was known for his infectious “smile” and “cool swagger.” He loved his family and friends dearly and shared very special relationships with his brother Timothy Daniels and a nephew Jerome Daniels, who was like a son to him.

James is predeceased in death by both his parents, a sister (Christeen Blain) and a brother (George Fulmore).

On Tuesday, April 5, 2016 at 1:35 am, James took his rest to be with the Lord after many years of battling emphysema.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving daughters, Florence Butler (David Allen) and Stacy Carlington (Antonio Martin); one brother, Timothy Daniels (Mary Ann); a brother-in-law, David Blain; a sister-in-law, Rachel Fulmore; three grandchildren, Jarrett, Khiya and Devin, a special friend, Olga Madsen, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

May I Go Now

*May I go now? Do you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to pain - filled days and endless lonely nights?
I've lived my life and done my best, an example tried to be,
So can I take that step beyond and set my spirit free?
I fought with all my might, but something seems to draw me now,
To a warm and lovely light. Thank you so for loving me, you know I love you too. That's why it's hard to say goodbye and end this life with you. So hold me now just one more time and let me hear you say, Because you care so much for me, you'll let me go today.*
