Reflections of Life

The fallen leaf is Elijah John Henry Pinkney who was born on February 8, 1945 in Greensboro, NC. He was the son of Rose Pinkney and Waldel Adams.

After High School, Elijah served in the United States Army doing a tour in Vietnam where he served as a Paratrooper, Sharp Shooter and a fantastic cook.

He was well loved by the ones he served with and liked by all who knew him. During his time in the service, he received various honors. Elijah eventually left the service with an Honorable Discharge.

He is survived by three children, daughter, Denice Copeland; sons, Ronald and Renold James; his sister, Mary Louise Barrow; brother, Christopher Moore; a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Last but not least, he leaves behind a fantastic fiancé, Brenda Robinson who loves him dearly.

Another Leaf Has Fallen

*Another leaf has fallen,
Another soul has gone,
But still we have God's promises,
In every Robin's song.
For he is in His heaven,
And though he takes away,
He always leave to mortals,
The bright son's kindly ray.
He leaves the fragrant blossoms,
And lovely fresh green.
And gives us new found comfort,
When we on Him lean.*

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
