Obituary

Ollie Brown, the second son of the late Prudence Brown, and Johnnie Brown was born on June 15, 1912 in Anderson County, Pendleton, South Carolina. He mourned his wife of forty-three years, Laura Jessie Brown, five siblings, Frank, Andrew, Ruth, Archie, and Sylvania. He was the last surviving member of his immediate family.

He was a skilled auto mechanic, craft man and businessman known for his integrity. He worked for Ford Motor Company for over twenty years from which he retired. An exceptional repairman, what he didn't know he quickly learned producing professional results. A favorite past time was watching the 6:00 PM news in his earlier years and the country music channel in his later.

He is survived by his beloved three daughters, Toni, Lorraine and Hellen; four grandchildren, Jerome, Yejide, Armani, and Mekhi; eight great grandchildren. Also survived by nephews, Claude and Frankie, and a niece, Betty; great nieces, Peggy, Janet, Veronica and a host of other relatives and friends.

Recognition and Thank you

The family would like to say thank you to Jean Clarke and Jacqueline Evans for the excellent care of our father. You made his life special and gave us a peace of mind. We also thank all the care takers that were in daddy's life.

Thank you to The One Church of Christ for supporting Lorraine and her family. We could not have done this without you.

We also thank Hall's Funeral Services for your empathy and professionalism.

Please join us to say farewell to our father,
grandfather, uncle and friend:
