Obituary

Jaime Harvey passed away on Sunday, April 17, 2016. He was born on November 19, 1947 in Santurce, Puerto Rico to Eleuteria and Lionel Harvey. He grew up on Amsterdam Avenue in Harlem, where he lived until his passing.

Jaime graduated from Benjamin Franklin High School. Immediately following, he enlisted in the United States Army, where he served five years of active duty in Germany and in the Vietnam War. He received the U.S. Army Qualification Marksmanship Sharpshooter Badge and the National Defense Service Medal.

Jaime's interests were many, but perhaps his fondest of all was sports of all kinds. He particularly loved participating in and watching basketball.

Jaime Harvey was the fifth of five children. His brother, Lionel Harvey II, and sister, Isabel Mitchell, preceded him in death. He is survived by: his two sisters, Ada Berry and Dora Mack; five nieces, Michelle Hinkson-Goins, Miriam Scott, Carolyn Hinkson-Jenkins, Sherry Pressley, and Sharon Williams; and a host of family and friends.

Jamie was very well loved.

Galatians 1:15, But even before I was born, God chose me and called me by his marvelous grace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
