Obituary

Thelma McCall, daughter of the late John D. McCall and Rose (McBride) McCall was born on September 20, 1950, the youngest girl of nine children in Bennettsville, South Carolina. While young, Thelma and her siblings moved from South Carolina to Brooklyn, New York to join her mother, Rose and her grandmother, Nizzie. During Thelma's youth she attended the New York City School System.

Thelma was a unique person, throughout her life she gained and maintained a loving and caring relationship with family and close friends. There were times in her relationship with her family and friends that nothing in the world could bother her. Then there would be times she would be very moody and temperamental to the people she cared for and loved, and she expressed this by separating herself from everyone for periods of time. That was Thelma's way of dealing with her emotions and troubles without destroying her relationship with her family and friends. Thelma McCall was truly loved by her friends, but especially by her family.

Thelma departed this life on Saturday, April 9, 2016 at 9:20pm at Archcare Senior Life, after a long and hard battle. The Lord heard her cries and said come home and rest my child, your long battle is over. Thelma follows her loving mother, Rose (McBride) McCall and her sister, Annie T. McCall.

Thelma leaves to cherish her memory: her sons, Tyrone McCall of Manhattan, NY and Roosevelt Junior McCall of South Carolina; her four sisters, Rose Brown of Brooklyn, NY, Nizzie (Dot) McCall of Brooklyn, NY, Pearly Mae McCall of Manhattan, NY and Mary Francis McCall of Manhattan, NY; her three brothers, John C. McCall of Manhattan, NY, Lindo McCall of South Carolina and Prentiss McCall of Queens, NY; her three grandchildren, Kaylyn McCall of Brooklyn, NY, Tequilla Santino McCall and Tangerine McCall both of Atlanta, GA; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
