Obituary

Davon A. Jones was born to Miranda LaRue and Damion Jones on November 18, 1998 in Orange, New Jersey. He was suddenly promoted to glory on Thursday, April 14, 2016.

Davon was raised in Orange where he attended the Orange Public School System. During his grammar school years he played recreational football and ran track but soon discovered that he preferred basketball. In his freshman year he attended Caldwell Technical School and was presently enrolled in the Career Innovation Academy which he enjoyed and was due to graduate June 2017. Although Davon was only seventeen he was employed at Trezza's Junk Yard for several years.

Davon truly loved spending time with his cousins who were more like his brothers. He loved to dress he worked hard for his money there by earning the nickname from his friends and family; D-Money Stay Fly.

Davon will be solely missed by: his mother, Miranda LaRue; father, Damion Jones; sister, Destiny Jones; grandparents, Patricia and Leonard LaRue and Barbara Jones; great grandmother, Emma Gaskin; niece Zion Mincey. He is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
