Obituary

(Janet) Georgianna Bryant was born on May 28, 1934 to George Bryant and Mollie (Deerman) Bryant in Newark, New Jersey. She departed this life on March 30, 2016. She was a longtime resident of Newark, NJ and received her education through the Newark Public School System. She was a graduate of Newark Vocational High School.

She was baptized as one Jehovah Witness on July 23, 1953. She was a loyal servant of Jehovah God and was a member of the Branch Brook Park Congregation, Newark, New Jersey. She auxiliary pioneered at least once a year. She loved encouraging and preaching to others about God's word, the Bible.

She was employed by the Essex County Welfare Department for 20 years before retiring in 1997. While she was employed, she was commended for "the excellence of her work" and her compassion when handling clients.

Georgianna was an avid reader and enjoyed sharing her knowledge and her humor, she also enjoyed the arts. Whether it was listening to classical music on WQRX, visiting museums or attending musical performances at NJPAC. Through her encouraging personal handwritten notes, gifts, visits or telephone calls, Georgianna shared her caring and love for her family and friends. She also extended her kindness to many stray animals over the years by giving them a loving and caring home.

Her kindness, sincerity, love, integrity and humor will be truly missed by her surviving cousins, Bernice Jones, Olga Anderson and Carol Hayes, other relatives and dear friends.

The background features a soft, ethereal scene with a large, pale moon in the upper left. Delicate, light-colored flowers, possibly cosmos, are scattered across the page, with some in the upper right and others in the lower half. A thin, dark vine with small leaves and curls winds through the composition, adding a sense of grace and movement.

Song 134

“See Yourself When All Is Now”

(Revelation 21: 1-5)

Closing Prayer

See Yourself When All Is New

(Revelation 21:1-5)

1. Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly free.
No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.

The time will have come for a new earthly start,
The song of our praises will pour out from our heart:

(CHORUS)

“Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong.”

2. Now see yourself, and see me too;
And look ahead to a world that is new.
No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.

He now shall awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join us with ev'ry grateful breath:

(CHORUS)

“Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong.”
