Obituary

Julian Washington, 30 was born on January 14, 1986 to Bradley Washington and Kim Miller-Bryant in New York City, New York. Julian received his education in New York City at the Children's Storefront up until the 8th grade. He then attended Westside High School, where he excelled in his studies.

Julian was affectionately known as “JuJu Bean”. He was quite the performer and a very talented young man. Julian attended dance school for ballet and also the Dream Chasers Theatre Company. He mentored students at Dream Chasers for some years. Julian loved helping out any way he could.

Julian was also a great cook; he loved preparing meals for his friends. He also loved spending quality time with his siblings whom he was very close to. Julian especially loved listening to music, Janet Jackson being his favorite, and dancing which he mastered. To know Julian was to love him. He could put a smile on anyone's face no matter what they were going through. Julian was just an all around fun, loving person who loved to party.

Julian Washington departed this life on Sunday, April 10, 2016. He was preceded in death by his oldest sister, Kim Miller, his grandparents, Isam Miller, Betty Washington and Thomas Denny who he lived with throughout his childhood.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Kim Miller-Bryant; step-father, Phillip Bryant; father, Bradley Washington; grandmother, Elizabeth Miller; four brothers, Guy Miller, Gerard Miller, Jeffrey Cunningham and Willie Simmons; three sisters, Brittney Miller, Kiara Bryant and Kim Simmons; cousin, Tamara Bryan who was more like a sister; uncles, Gregory Washington, Darryl Washington, Isam Miller and Dasean Miller; aunts, Ada Miller and Gail Miller; and a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and other loving relatives and friends too many to name.

Julian will be missed by many and remembered as the outstanding and heroic man that we all loved. “May you sleep in peace “JuJu” until we meet again.”

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,

a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
