Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.” Revelations 21:4

Isaiah Terrell Webster Peterson, entered into this world on February 24, 1989 in Newark, New Jersey. He is the son of Maybelle Peterson Barnes and Charlie Rogers and the grandson of the late Mitchell and Juanita Peterson.

Isaiah attended Lincoln School, Weequahic High School in Newark, New Jersey and Lincoln Technical School in Union, NJ.

Isaiah worked for Father and Son Moving Company in Newark, NJ, Thomas O’Beirne in Roseland, NJ, and Action Staffing in Elizabeth, NJ just to name a few. He took work seriously and used any means possible to be at work and on time even if it meant that he had to walk. Isaiah’s greatest passion was cooking which is a skill that he acquired from his mother. He did not cook because he had to but cooked because he wanted too. On many occasions, he would ask his mom, “Mom, what are you cooking today.” When she got home from church, the food was prepared and it was definitely time to dine.

At an early age, Isaiah was a faithful member of Rose of Sharon Baptist Church in Newark, NJ under the leadership of Pastor Marie Reddick. There he faithfully served on the Junior Deacon Board and he sang in the children’s choir. He also attended Highway To Holiness Church in Newark, NJ under the leadership of the late Pastor Rodella Bryant. His mother’s commission was to introduce him to the Lord at an early age so that the seed could be planted.

Isaiah was compassionate, sensitive, respectful, and had a willing heart to help anyone no matter who they were. He really loved Rashawn and Savannah and spent many hours playing with them, cooking for them, and even babysitting them. They had a special connection that could not be broken. He had a genuine love for his siblings and often declared and demonstrated his deep devotion and love for his mothers.

Isaiah is gone but will never be forgotten!

Isaiah leaves to cherish and treasure his memories: his mother, Maybelle Peterson Barnes; his father, Charlie Rogers; sisters, Angela Peterson, Ericka Barnes, Jasmine Barnes, Jennifer Barnes, Tiffany Allen, Betty Allen, Christine Wilson, Shareeda Thompson, Aleisha Thompson Tamika Blakley, Joy Kinman, Ulanda Kinman and Shonda Vann; brothers, Altawon Barnes, Jeremiah Barnes, Shawn Allen, Reggie Allen, James Kinman, Alfonso Lowery, the late Pub Thompson and Leon Lowery; aunts, Mrs. Hattie Kinmans, Mrs. Irene Peterson, Mrs. Mary Lee (Charles), Evangelist Constance Latham (Dallas) and Elder Dianna Bryant; uncle, Mr. Mitchell Peterson (Deborah); godchildren, Rashawn Barnes and Savannah Peterson; God sisters, Evangelist Sharonda Jones, Rasheedah Thompson and Tamaya McBee; two favorite cousins, Elder Na-Tasiha Mace and Ivorie Mace; and a host of relatives and friends.

“Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?” John 11:25-26

Love Lives On

*Those we love remain with us for love itself lives on and cherished memories never fade because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart
far as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart.*

Family Gratitude

We the family of Isaiah Terrell Webster Peterson would like to express sincere appreciation and thanks to friends, relatives and our church family who have been so thoughtful and kind. Your prayers, visits, words of comfort and other thoughtful deeds continue to be a source of strength to us. Special thanks to the Chapels of Eden Staff. May God bless each of you.
