Obituary

"To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heavens." Ecclesiastes 3:1

"A Time To Be Born"

Charles Tarver was born on March 21, 1934 to Elizabeth Alberta Tarver and Thomas Knapper from Augusta, Georgia.

"A Time To Serve"

As a young boy, he attended public school in New York and went to Wadleigh High School. He developed a true love for art and taught art to many young people in the Taft Houses in New York City, and he had a studio there. Charles also did art shows at Union Settlement in New York City, where you saw lots of his sketches and paintings. Art was his pride and joy. He was always doing art and went to many seminars regarding it. As a young man, Charles lend his talent as a supervisor in a print shop. He was very gifted at what he did.

"A Time To Love"

Charles Tarver was a man that did his best and loved his family. On August 30, 1953, he married Minnie Tarver and from that union two children were born, one daughter, Sylvia and one son, Charles, Jr. He took care of his family. We will always cherish his favorite saying, "give me love" and he gave you a hug.

Charles was a great man, very smart, dignified and very hardworking. He was a man that was always willing to help you when you were down and out.

Charles was a loving father, grandfather, uncle, and friend to all. He will be missed!

"A Time To Die"

On Sunday, May 1, 2016 at 5:20 a.m., an angel of silence sealed the lips of our loved one.

"A Time To Mourn"

Charles is survived by: his sister, Mildred Tarver; daughter, Sylvia; son, Charles, Jr. (Maureen) Tarver; sister-in-law, Rosalyn Wallace; grandchildren, Lareasha, Shamika, Sedeika (Doozie) Bolton; and many loving nieces, nephews and extended family.

*He's just away
We know it's true
He waits in peace
Let faith reclaim
This hour of gray
We'll meet again
He's just away.*

Acknowledgement

The Tarver Family would like to take this opportunity to express their deep appreciation for every act of kindness and sympathy shown during this time of bereavement. Continue to remember us in prayer.
