Obituary

Emergene T. Golden was born to the late Nossie Hairston and James Golden in Forsyth County, North Carolina.

After moving to New Jersey, she continued her education by graduating from Morristown High School. As her life continued, Emma became employed as a machine operator for E.J. Brooks Industrial for thirty-three years until her retirement. She was a woman who worked diligently and never refrained from being aggressive in helping others at any time.

All of her life, Emma enjoyed mentoring and encouraging all who would listen to her wisdom, surrendering her life to God at an early age, she became busy to serve with an eager attitude and gratefulness for the kingdom of heaven. She was a strong woman, mother and an example to all who knew her. She will be missed and remembered tremendously.

Yes, “Goldie” affectionately called by friends has gone to her reward to meet the Lord finally. The other day, the “Usher” was called up to meet our savior and Lord. Well done Emergene, take your rest.

Emma is survived by her loving son, Kevin Sorey of Irvington, NJ; brother, Michael L. Golden, of Suisun City, CA; Sister-in-law, Gladys Golden (James) of Morristown, NJ, Niece, Sharon L. Golden (Alonah) of West Orange, NJ, Niece, Tracy Golden-Jones, (Ronald) of Montclair, NJ, Philip L. Golden (Crystal) of Atlanta, GA; Nieces, Tia and Tilia Golden of Atlanta, GA; and many other relatives including nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and a loving church family including New Ephesus Baptist Church of East Orange, NJ where she was a dedicated usher and member.

She was preceded in death by her son, Sidney James Golden and her brother, James A. Golden.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
