Reflections of Life

“Jesus said unto him I am the way, the truth and the Life; No man way, no man cometh unto the Father but by me.”

John 14:6

Marvenia Hogan, was born on November 7, 1930 in Lincolnton, Georgia to the late John H. Hogan and Linnie Gunby Hogan.

She attended school in Lincolnton, GA. She moved from Georgia to Passaic in 1951.

During her working years, she was employed by Eastern Overall in Garfield, NJ. Later on she became a private domestic worker.

Marvenia accepted Christ at an early age, she attended Church in Georgia and she was also a former member of St. Paul’s Baptist Church in Passaic, NJ. Marvenia was affectionately known as “Feen” she will be remembered as a serious but fun loving person. Even when she disciplined, she often included humorous remarks such as making a reference to the “monkey’s butt”.

She loved to attend the Buckingham Adult Center, she also loved to fish, play solitary and bingo; her favorite music was Blues.

Marvenia departed this Life on Saturday, April 30, 2016 at the Select Specialty Hospital in Rochelle Park, New Jersey.

She was predeceased in death by her three daughters, Rosalind, Linda and Helen, her fiancé and companion since 1969, George Sellars; six sisters; three brothers and her special niece, Margaret (Irene) Reid Stidom.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: two sons, Michael and Melvin Hogan both of Paterson, NJ; eight grandchildren, six great grandchildren; special nieces, Laura Hogan of Passaic, NJ, Carol Dunn of Florida and Jennie Dunn of Licolnton, GA; and a special great niece who she considered her “Warrior Road Dawg” Laureen Hogan Ricks of Clifton, NJ; best friend, Dorothy Rapley; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

*Sadly Marvenia was called home to rest
But everyone knows God always takes the best.
Today we imagine God's arms were opened wide,
As He welcome her into the other side.
Now she is in His loving care,
And her presence is still so very near
God feels our pain from the loss of someone so dear.
He promises tomorrow to wipe away every painful tear,
Now as we say our final goodbye.
We know that she is siting high,
She's right next to the King's Throne,
And we're comforted in knowing she's in her heavenly home.
Yes Marvenia, Love is the Legacy left behind by you,
That travels and radiates in all things we do.
Lovingly Submitted by The Family
For the people who have lost their loved ones, their parents we say,
"Steal away, steal away. You ain't get long to be here"
Cherish your loved ones while they are still here...*

Love You Mom
Michael & Melvin
