Obituary

Frederick also known as Reggie, was born August 3, 1951 in Newark, NJ to Rosetta and Frederick Jones. He grew up in Newark and graduated from Newark Tech.

Later on he married Verlana Jones. Out of that union came Tiffany and Brooke Jones. In 1992, he was widowed after the passing of Verlana.

Reggie then moved to New York for many years. Upon his return to New Jersey, he rekindled a friendship with Adele Purdue which grew into a lifetime of love.

Reggie had many endeavors, one being owner and operator of Extreme Cleaning. However, Reggie's passion was music, singing and entertaining. He loved to spontaneously sing at family gatherings. Reggie became a part of Nu Men of Soul where he traveled, sang and gained brothers.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Rosetta and Frederick.

Reggie leaves to cherish his memory: his children, Kytria, La Quasha, Tiffany, Brooke and Reggie; grandchildren, Rafiyah, Tamiyah, Quasim, Le-Aja, Raji, Quadir, Ja'Mar and Tiffany; step-mother, Helen Jones; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
