OBITUARY

Marvin Stith was born on December 28, 1925 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Marvin was raised by the late Edgar and Pearl Campbell, who adopted him as a small child.

Marvin who was also known as "POP" attended John Berry Public School, Shoemaker Junior High and Overbrook Senior High. When Marvin was seventeen, he enlisted in the Navy with his parents consent. Marvin served in World War II from 1943 to 1946, he then was discharged with honors as a Seaman first class.

In 1947, Marvin met his first wife, Barbara Anderson. After their divorce, Marvin moved to New York where he met his second wife, the late Mary Green in the early 80's.

Marvin leaves behind: his siblings, Robert, Stelland, and Edgar, Jr. Unfortunately he did not father any children, but he adopted three grandchildren of his own, Rosalina and Gary Crichlow and Cindy Leviner. Marvin leaves his love to all his nieces, nephews, family and friends. Pop would not want to leave out his best friend, John Prevedello, who has always been there for him in his time of need.

Love always and forever.

CROSSING OVER

Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go
I see you are still feeling sad
And the tears just seem to flow
We all come to earth for our lifetime
And for some it's not many years
I don't want to keep crying
I haven't really left yet
Even though it may seem so
I have just gone to my heavenly home
And I'm closer to you than you know
Just believe that when you say
My name, I'm standing next to you
I know you long to see me
But there's nothing I can do
But I'll still send you a message
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to
Cross over, I'll be there
To take your hand
