Obituary

Carolyn "Brownie" Brown was born on September 21, 1947 in Harlem, New York, to the late Julia Cain and Clifford Brown. Between Carolyn and her brother, Charles, she was the youngest of their two children.

Like many teenagers Carolyn was carefree, energetic and spontaneous. She was well loved by everyone she met. Carolyn became a mother during her teenage years. She gave birth to her son, Gary and soon after she had her son, Terrance.

Later on, Carolyn met the late Richard Louis Bolton, a Georgia native and she fell madly in love. They soon would marry and conceive, Richard Louis Bolton, Jr. Carolyn and Richard were together for twenty-six years before he passed in 1995.

Carolyn was educated in the New York City Public School system. The love she had for her children and husband motivated her to focus on herself to provide a better life for her family. Carolyn worked for the city of New York for almost eight years. She went back to school to obtain her associates degree to further her career as an HPD employee.

Carolyn loved to travel. You could not keep her out of Atlantic City. She also loved sporting events. Brownie was a get up and go type of person, even in her old age. She was outgoing, loving and very strong.

Carolyn battled with cancer for over twenty years. She is the true definition of a survivor.

Carolyn "Brownie" Bolton leaves behind: her three sons, Gary, Terrance and Richard; her four grandchildren, Christopher, Richard III, Reniyah and Kuran; and a host of friends and family.

Carolyn will be reunited with her parents, husband, brother, and best friend, Linda Little. May they continue to rest in peace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
