Obituary

On May 4, 2016 Dolores was called home. Dolores Aretha White (affectionately known as Dee) was born on September 16, 1934 to the late George Ernest White and late Eva Indiana White of Brooklyn, New York. Dolores was the fifth child. She accepted Christ in her life at an early age becoming a member of Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church in Brooklyn, NY under the leadership of Rev. Franklin.

Dolores was educated in the New York City Public School System and spent a few semesters at NYC Community College. There she majored in mathematics and had a love for percentages. She could recite fractions off the top of her head. This ability led her to the Wall Street District where she was employed with Merrill Lynch and later Chemical Bank.

For all those who knew Dolores recognized her great passion for sports; just to name a few football, baseball, and basketball. She played softball, and basketball from the 1950's through the late 1960's. After retiring, she seldom missed any televised sports. In the winter, you could find her in front of a television cheering for her favorite football team and yelling out all the plays. Dolores was also fascinated with CNN. She could tell the latest news and give her opinion, whether you asked for it or not. She was very opinionated; her favorite saying was " I know my rights".

Dolores began her journey of travel in 2004, where she relocated to Salisbury, MD and shortly thereafter to Charlotte, NC to be with family. Her ability to adapt was phenomenal. She enjoyed her personal time and space, in which she completed crossword puzzles, watched movies, and enjoyed traveling around on the city bus to visit the local library.

She leaves to cherish her memory: one brother, George B White of Jersey City, NJ; two sisters, Sarahann Ambrose of Salisbury, MD and Helen White of New York, NY; many nieces and nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews, a host of cousins, other family members, and friends.

Dolores, May you rest in eternal peace.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.*

*A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
