Obituary

Essie M. Carter, was born to Willie White and Murray L. Jackson-White on January 24, 1935 in Albany, Georgia. Essie attended Albany Public School system where she met Robert Carter. Essie wed her beloved Robert Carter in 1951 and from that union came one daughter, Barbara Carter aka Hajja Kareemah Butler-Sharif.

The Carter family later relocated to Baltimore, MD where she became gainfully employed by John Hopkins Hospital as a Nurse's Aide. Later the couple moved to Newark, NJ where her only grandson, Tyrone Carter aka Abdul Khabir Sharif was born. She loved her grandson more than life it self.

Essie worked many years at the Drakes Bakery. Years later, she would retire from Bell Telephone (AT&T).

Essie had a heart of gold, she loved cooking for her family, who would come in from out of town. She would be so excited that her brothers, sister and sister-in-law were coming to visit her.

Essie M. Carter leaves her loving daughter, Kareemah Butler Sharif to cherish many fond memories. She also leaves her grandson, Abdul Khabir Sharif. Her brothers, Frank and Ulysses White; her sisters, May Sheard, Adelle Bullock and Louise Primrose and her sister-in-law, Sandy White. Essie also leaves her great-grandchildren, Jasmine L. Carter, Najee K. Carter, Walid Omar Carter, Najeeb Carter, Abdul Muhaimin Carter, Ayesha R. Carter, Zubaida Carter and Ibraheem Sharif. She was blessed to have three great-great grandchildren, Zion, Jasmir and Savannah. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, friends and other relatives.

Essie was predeceased by her parents and two brothers, Bill White and Charles Boone.

Although she is no longer with us, we will always remember her and her natural fun loving way.

Peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let peace be your goal.*
