Obituary

Maggie Bell Dewitt was born to Sam McFall and Mary Brown on September 23, 1923 in Bucksport, South Carolina. On the afternoon of Thursday, May 12, 2016, Maggie was called from our midst.

Maggie grew up in Bucksport, SC, and later moved to Conway, SC. She met and married Dennis Dewitt and they moved to New York. She possessed special bonds with her family and friends.

Maggie's education was received within the Conway school system. She retired after thirty years of service from the Veteran's Administration as a nurse in July 2000.

Many knew Maggie to be a very passionate and caring person. But those within her inner circle knew she was a loving, generous, and giving person, who was deeply devoted to maintaining family ties. She was attentive towards the needs of her grandchildren, sister, and doting matriarch. She will remain cherished by all.

Maggie is preceded in death by her husband of over sixty years, Dennis Dewitt, and her son, Purnell (Sonny) Bradley. Left to cherish her memories are: her sister, Missielee Ladson; nephew, Vernon Ladson, whom she raised as her son; her grandchildren, Belinda Bradley Stewart, Wanda Perkins, Patricia Bradley Bunch, Damon Bradley, Purnell Nichols, Pernell, Gwendolyn, Sheena and Travis Thorton; a host of great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, great-great-great grandchildren; and a host of relatives, nieces and nephews who adored her dearly.

Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning,

Tears are for the sad;

And this should make you glad.

Don't waste your hours in grieving,

No need to feel distress;

I'm tired of life's frustrations

And had to get some rest.

Don't puzzle yourself with questions

Or try to reason why

Life here for me was ended,

It came my time to die.

Don't lose the love I gave you

Feed it with your care;

Grow it with devotion

And spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving

Came in such a way;

We'll have another meeting

In God's eternal day.
