Obituary

GLORIA JEAN SCOTT was born in Orange, New Jersey on May 7, 1945. She was one of five children born to the late John and Mattie Pearl Scott. Mattie Pearl later married Curtis Johnson. “Jean”, as she was called by those close to her, departed this life May 15, 2016.

Jean attended the Orange School System, and for approximately eighteen years she worked as a Supervisor in the Dietary Department of St. Mary’s Hospital in Orange, New Jersey. While working there, she also maintained a part-time job as a cook for The Lounge on Central Avenue, Orange, NJ for thirteen years. She later began employment with Muhlenburg Hospital in South Plainfield, New Jersey also as a Dietary Supervisor for nine years, at which time she retired to remain at home.

Jean was a very hard working, independent woman who enjoyed life. She was known to tell you what she honestly thought about a situation, whether you wanted to hear it or not. When you became a friend, you were a friend for life. Her love for her family was open and sincere, and although Jean was a very private person, she was also fun-loving and outgoing. She will be truly missed by many. To God be the Glory!

Jean was preceded in death by her father, John Henry Scott, mother, Mattie Pearl Scott-Johnson, sisters, Frances Johnson and Diana Wigfall and brother, Clifford Scott. She leaves to cherish her memory: her son, Raymone Genard Scott, Sr.; two grandchildren, Michelle Winborn and Raymone Scott, Jr.; eight great-grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; brother, John Scott; special friend, Charlene Motley; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
Please don't say how good I was, but I did my best.
Just say that I tried to do what's right - to give the most I could, not do less.*

*Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
Please don't give flowers, or talk in hushed tones.
Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God;
I've made it to my home.*

*Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done.
Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.
When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a Saint.
I've done some good, I've done some wrong,
so use all your paint -*

*Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark.
In fact, don't put me down on canvass, paint me in your heart.
Don't just remember good times, but remember all the bad.
For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.
But if you must do something, then I have one last request -
Forgive for the wrongs I've done, and with the love that's left,
Thank God for my soul's resting, thank God for I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me, praise God who loved me best!*

Acknowledgement
