Life Reflections

Edna Earl Fuller was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina, daughter of the late Steven Williams and Carrie Blue Williams. Edna was born one of eight children. She lived in Roselle for 25 years.

Edna attended and graduated from Anne Chestnut High School with honors. In 1982, she graduated from Essex County College with an Associates' degree in Science.

Edna was employed as a Licensed Practical Nurse at St. Michael's Hospital in Newark for 6 years, retiring in 1978. Previously, she worked at Philadelphia General Hospital for 15 years.

She became a foster mother for the Division of Youth and Family Services and served them for 25 years.

Edna was a member of Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church in Roselle for 15 years. A former member of New Salem Baptist Church in Newark, she attended for many years.

During her life, she was married to the late Sergeant Major Daniel Dupree and remained faithful until his passing. She later married Dexter Fuller whom preceded her in death in 2003, and her sons, James Dupree Boykins and Johnny Dupree Boykins.

In the quiet stillness of the evening, the night of May 22, 2016, the angel of silence, who keeps the time schedule, made sure that his records were in order – calling Edna E. Fuller home.

Edna was a world traveler. She enjoyed bowling, bingo, listening to spiritual music and just rejoicing in the Lord.

She was predeceased by her husband, Dexter Fuller in 2003 and sons, James Dupree Boykins and Johnny Dupree Boykins.

Edna leaves to cherish fond memories, her three daughters: Ruby Gordon, Shamecca Fuller and Earlene Fuller; two sons: Ramel Fuller and Fuquan Fuller; one brother, Rev. Bobby Lee Williams (Mary); ten grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and a host of dear cousins, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
