Life Reflections

John Henry Julius, Sr., affectionately known as “Daddy Rap,” was born on November 22, 1931 in Lee County, South Carolina, the son of the late Eugene and Lucille Julius. As a youth, John found the Lord and became a member of Mount Olive AME Church in Woodrow, South Carolina. John reunited with the Lord when he became a member of First Baptist Church in Linden, New Jersey.

Looking for a better life, Daddy Rap relocated his young family to East Grand Street in Elizabeth, New Jersey in 1965. He worked as a long distance Truck Driver prior to this move. He worked at the General Gummed Corporation in Linden and The Wing Company in Cranford, New Jersey. He was employed as a Custodian at St. John Vianney Church School in Colonia, retiring in 1996.

Daddy Rap was a great inspiration to his family and friends, always joyful, loving and dancing his “good ole knees.” If the saying “strength in numbers” is correct, then the Julius’ have strength in abundance.

He was predeceased by his three sons, Murray Julius, James E. Julius and Willie Julius.

A marriage of 66 years, Daddy Rap leaves behind a loving wife, Rosa Julius (as she was lovingly called “Prazy”) and their life together transcended all. Prazy was the rock on which he drew his strength and the glue that kept the family together. He also leaves to cherish his memory, his five sons: John, Jr. (Ann), Maymon (Delois), Andrew (Linda), Earl (Alesia), and Larry Julius; five daughters: Queen, Rosalind (Johnny), Bernadine (Joe), Bewilda, and Sandra (Darnell); three sisters: Geneva Lee of South Carolina, Louise Allen and Eunice McLean of Maryland; one brother, John Jay of Linden, New Jersey; 22 grandchildren, a multitude of precious great- and great-great-grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Diane Julius; and a host of dear relatives, family and friends whom he held dear.

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired,

When a cure was not to be.

So He wrapped His arms around you,

And whispered, “Come unto me”.

You didn’t deserve what you went through,

And so He gave you rest.

God’s garden must be beautiful,

He only takes the best.

So when I saw you sleeping,

So peaceful and free from pain.

I could not wish you to come back, to suffer that all again.
