Obituary

Joyce Wilson was born on September 19, 1945, and was called home on Friday, May 13, 2016, at the age of seventy. Joyce was born in Brooklyn, New York to John Wilson and Cora Walker, and was the third child of this union.

She spent her adult life living in the Bronx, while first working for the New York Telephone Company, and the Human Resources Administration, where she retired from in 2007. Joyce attended New York Technical College, where she received an associates degree in human services.

Throughout her life, Joyce enjoyed traveling, helping others and enjoying life. She was an active member of Fountain Spring Baptist Church, and the Noble Ladies Effie Grant #202, Chapter of the Eastern Stars.

Joyce is preceded in death by her parents, John Wilson and Cora Walker, siblings, Edward Walker, Anita Wilson and Roslyn Smith and is survived by her nieces, Melody Foggie, Wanda Ringgold, Karen Wilson, her nephews, Darryl Foggie, Wayne Walker and Jermaine Smith, and a host of great nieces and nephews.

*We little knew that morning, God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone, For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories,
You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.*

I've Changed My Address

*I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.*
