Obituary

Milton "Pockets" Carroll was born September 3, 1965 to the late Hamlon and Wesley Mae Carroll. On May 17, 2016, Milton was called home and given his wings by our Heavenly Father.

Milton lived his life in New York City and was educated through New York City Public School system. Upon completing his education, he became employed by Clancey Cullen, which he provided fifteen years of graceful service. Milton made the company a part of his extended family, by whom he was provided the nickname "Pockets".

He met and devoted his heart to his high school sweetheart, Robin Johnson, which he shared thirty-five years of love. From this union one child was born, Lanece.

Milton was the last of thirteen children, Ella Mae (Frederick), Linda, Deborah, Barbara, Shirley, Hamlon, Jr., James and Reginald all whom preceded him in death. He is survived by: Gloria, Darryl (Tracey), Stephen and his twin sister, Mildred. He also leaves to mourn a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and many many friends.

As Milton was a pillar within the family, he provided a great laugh and a soft shoulder when needed. He may be gone in presence, but will live on in the many memories he has shared with us all.

A Letter From Heaven

*W*hen tomorrow starts without me

And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry

The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me

As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

*W*hen tomorrow starts without me,

Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
