Obituary

Willie (John) Walls was born on December 20, 1925 in Jacksonville, Florida to Jerry and Leila Walls. He was one of six children, Louise, Verdell, Burnell, Geraldine and Norman.

Growing up he played just about every sport and he loved riding horses and playing croquet. He was also a history and geography buff. He came to New York as a young man in his twenties, and he met Helen, his wife for sixty-four years. He was a devoted husband and father. He served as a cook in the Army during the Korean War. After leaving the Army he worked as a waiter in some of New York's finest restaurants. He was a hard worker and valuable employee.

He lived a full life until the age of ninety, and on May 18, 2016, Willie took his last breath. He is survived by: his son, Jerry; daughter, Sheila; his grandchildren, Ashli, Julie, Tayler and Elijah; his great grandchildren, Shalice and Londell, Jr.; nieces, Harriette and Sheila; nephew, Bernard; great nieces and nephews, Darrell, Tonya, Keisha, Todd, Tia, Tina, Tamika and Shatika; as well as a host of great-great nieces and nephews.

Order of Service
