Obituary

Triston Garcia was born on May 6, 1987 in Mt. Hope, Trinidad to proud parents, Kelvin and Annette Garcia. After living in Trinidad for only seven years, Triston along with his family moved to New Jersey in 1994. There he attended Lincoln Avenue Elementary School before moving to Irvington in 1997 and graduating from Irvington High School in 2005.

Triston was a practical joker and loved playing jokes on everyone. He also enjoyed listening to music, shopping and watching television. Everyone that knew him knew how much his car meant to him and it was his pride and joy. He was a hard worker who very seldom missed a day at work and worked two jobs ever since his teenage years. He also took pride in spending time with his nieces and nephews and surprising them with gifts, especially for birthdays and during the holiday season.

He departed this earthly realm on Thursday, May 19, 2016 while at home in Bloomfield, NJ, at the young age of 29.

Triston leaves to mourn his passing: his parents, Annette and Kelvin; brother, Andre; his sisters, Dana and Tiffany; seven aunts, Joan, June, Kathleen, Rosemary, Donna, Marcia and Wilma; six uncles, Winston, Samuel, Kenneth, Clyde, Eric and Winston H; his nephews, Joshua and Dalan (AJ); nieces, Ana-Lisa, Faith and Dalania; cousins, Elaine, Cindy, Tenisha and Tenille; and a host of other family members as well as friends.

INTERMENT

Clinton Cemetery
Irvington, New Jersey

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident. One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me. When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek. Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up. Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies. Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty. I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living. Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.
